

Code of Conduct for EPF 2023

Welcome to EPF 2023 in Beijing! We are thrilled to bring together scientists and researchers from around the world to discuss the latest developments in the field of extrasolar planets. In order to ensure a respectful and productive environment for all attendees, we kindly request that all participants adhere to the following Code of Conduct:

- 1. Respectful and Inclusive Environment: We are committed to creating an inclusive and respectful environment where all attendees are treated with kindness and respect, regardless of their nationality, gender, race, religion, or background.
- 2. Professional Conduct: Please maintain professionalism at all times. Engage in discussions and debates with courtesy and an open mind. Critique ideas, not individuals.
- 3. Harassment-Free Zone: Harassment of any kind will not be tolerated. This includes unwelcome advances, offensive comments, or any form of discrimination. If you experience or witness harassment, please report it to conference organizers immediately.
- 4. Inclusivity: Foster an atmosphere of inclusivity by actively encouraging diverse perspectives and voices in discussions and presentations.
- 5. Privacy and Consent: Respect the privacy and consent of fellow participants. Do not share personal information or images without explicit permission, especially plots and results under embargo or explicitly indicated by the presenters that no photo is allowed.
- 6. Compliance with Local Laws: Abide by all local laws and regulations during your stay in Beijing.
- 7. COVID-19 Safety: We encourage but do not require participants to wear masks during the conference for the health and safety of all attendees.
- 8. Feedback and Concerns: If you have any concerns or suggestions for improving the conference experience, please reach out to the conference organizers at epf2023@163.com. Your feedback is valuable in making this conference a success.

By registering and attending EPF2023, you agree to uphold this Code of Conduct. We believe that adhering to these principles will contribute to a stimulating and harmonious atmosphere, fostering the exchange of knowledge and ideas that are at the heart of our scientific community. Thank you for your cooperation, and we look forward to a successful and enriching conference!
